TELUGU PROVERBS.

అ

1. అంగట్లో అన్నీ వున్నవి, అల్లునినోట్లో శని వున్నది.

There is everything in the bazaar, but Saturn is in the mouth of the son-in-law,

Some unfortunate circumstance prevented a son-in-law from availing himself of the good fare of his father-in-law.

Evil fate.

2. అంగట్లో బెల్లము గుళ్లో లింగానికి నైవేద్యము.

Offering the molasses in the bazaar to the lingam in the temple.

Willing to be liberal at the expense of others.

3. అంగిట బెల్లము, ఆత్మలో విషము.

Molasses in the roof of the mouth, and poison in the heart.

Honey in his mouth, words of milk;
Gall in his heart, fraud in his deeds. (Latin)

4. అంగిట విషము, మున్నాలికను తియ్యదనము.

Poison in the palate, sweetness on the tip of the tongue.

Full of courtesy, full of craft.

5. అంటుముట్టరాని అగ్రహారము.

An Agrahara which should not be touched or felt.
Said of anything that should scrupulously be avoided.

6. అంటూసంటూ అసాదివానిది, రట్టూరవ్వా గంగానమ్మది.

All the offerings go to the priest, the noise to Gangamma.

7. అంటూసంటూలేనికోడలిదాని మేనమామకొడుకు చిక్కుడుచెట్టుకిందికిపోయి పక్కలుయెగరవేశినాడట.

The wife's maternal uncle's son, who had nothing to do with ceremonial uncleanness, went and sobbed under the bean tree.

Claiming relationship.

8. అంత్యనిష్ఠురముకన్నా ఆదినిష్ఠురమే మేలు.

Annoyance at the beginning is better than annoyance at the end.

A prompt denial causes less annoyance than compliance with a request and disappointment in the end.

Better a friendly denial than an unwilling compliance. (German.)

9. అందనిపూలు దేవునికి అర్పణ.

An offering to the deity of the flowers which cannot be reached.

10. అందనిమానిపండ్లకు ఆశ పడ్డట్టు.

Like wishing for fruit which cannot be reached.

11. అందరికీ నేను లోకువ, వాకు నంబిరామాయ లోకువ.

I am below all, but Nambi Ramaya is below me.

12. అందరికీ శకునముచెప్పేబల్లి కుడితితొట్టిలో పడ్డట్టు.

The lizard which tells the fortunes of all fell itself into the tub of rice-washings.

13. అందరూ అందలము యెక్కితే, మోసేవారు యెవరు?

If all get into the palankin, who will be the bearers?

You a lady, I a lady, who is to drive out the sow? (Galician.)

14. అందానకు పెట్టినసొమ్ము, ఆపదకు అడ్డంవస్తుంది.

Ornaments worn for beauty will be useful in the time of want.

15. అందానికి రెండు బొందలు, ఆటకు రెండు తాళాలు.

Two holes in beauty; two cymbals in dance.

Said of an ugly dance.

16. అంధునకు అద్దము చూపినట్లు.

Like showing a blind man a looking glass.

A blind man will not thank you for a looking glass.

17. అంబటివేరు వచ్చినది అత్తగారూ అంటే, కొలబుర్ర నా చేతిలో ఉన్నది కోడలా అన్నదట.

"A river of porridge has come, mother-in-law?" she cried "But I have the measure, daughter-in-law" replied the dame.

18. అంబలి తాగేవారికి మీసాలు యొగబట్టేవారు కొందరా?

Do people that live on porridge keep men to hold up their mustaches?

Said of a poor man trying to appear grand.

A proud mind and a poor purse are ill met.

19. అకటవికటపు రాజుకు అవివేకిప్రధాని, చావస్తపు పరివారము.

A foolish minister, and a clumsy retinue, to a perverse king.

20. అక్కన్న మాదన్నగారు అందలమెక్కితే, సాటికి సరప్ప చెరువుకట్ట యెక్కినాడట.

When Akkanna and Madanna mounted their state palankin, Sarappa got on the bund of the tank to make himself equal.

Envying and mocking the wealthy.

Puppies imitating their mistresses. (Latin.)

21. అగడ్తలో పడ్డపిల్లికి అదే వైకుంఠం.

The moat is heaven to the cat that falls into it.

It cannot possibly escape, and dies.–An inextricable difficulty.

22. అగస్త్యభ్రాత.

The brother of Agastya.

Agastya was a great sage, who was not known to have any brother.—Applied to a new-comer, attempting to make himself out a great personage.

23. అగ్గువ అయితే అంగడికి వస్తుంది.

When it is cheap, it comes to the bazaar.

24. అగ్గువ అయితే అందరూ కొంటారు.

When it is cheap, all will buy.

25. అగ్నికి వాయువు సహాయమయినట్లు.

Like wind assisting fire.

26. అగ్నిలో మిడత పడ్డట్లు.

Like a grass-hopper jumping into the fire. (flame).

To try, they say, to extinguish it.—Applied to rash acts.

27. అగ్నిహోత్రములో ఆజ్యము పోసినట్లు.

Like ghee poured on fire.

To cast oil in the fire is not the way to quench it.

28. అచ్చెం తిరుమణిధారి ఆయితే పుల్ల పట్టడంలోనే తెలుసును.

You can tell whether he is really a tirumanidhari (Vaishnava) or not by the way in which he holds the pencil.

Tirumani is the clay used for the sectarian mark worn on the forehead by Vaishnavas.

Halt not before a cripple.

29. అచ్చివచ్చినభూమి అడిగెడే చాలును.

If the ground is lucky a foot of it is enough.

Luck is all.

30. అటయితే వైద్యకట్నము, యిటయితే వైతరణి గోదానము.

In the one case, Medical fees; in the other, the gift of a Vaitarani cow.

Said by a Brahmin priest and Doctor.

To be between the hammer and the anvil (French.)

33. అడగనేరను, వూడ్చిపెట్టుమన్నట్లు.

I cannot ask, sweep the whole (into my dish).

Feigned Modesty.

I don't want it. I don't want it, but put it into my hood. (Spanish.)

34. అడిగేవానికి చెప్పేవాడు లోకువ.

He who has to answer is inferior to him who questions.

It is one thing to put questions, another to answer them.

35. అడియాశ పొడియాశ దుఃఖానకు కారణము.

Vain hopes are a source of grief.

Hope and expectation are a fool's income. (Danish.)

36. అడవికాచిన వెన్నెల.

Like moonlight in the jungle.

Wasted on a spot where it is not appreciated.

37. అడవి నక్కలకు కొత్వాలు దురాయా.

What does a wild jackal care for the threats of a Police Officer ?

Does the moon care if the dog bark at her? (German.)

38. అడుగులోనే వాంసపాదా?

What! a caret in the commencement?

Said by a man to an ignorant scribe who, in writing the customary invocation "Sri Ramajaya" at the heading of a letter, omitted a syllable.

Blundering at the very beginning of any business.

He who begins ill finishes worse (Italian.)

Well begun is half done.
